ARRIVAL OF A SHIP GIVEN UP AS LOST. THE EVENTFUL VOYAGE OF THE ELSE-OTHER VESSELS DELAYED BY STORMS AND ICE.

The EVENTFUL VOYAGE OF THE ELSE—OTHER VESSELS DELAYED BY STORMS AND ICE.

The German ship E.s., which sailed from Liverpool on December 16, and which was given up as lost, arrived at this port yesterday after a tedions and stormy voyage of 102 days. She had a succession of hard storms up to January 12. On that day a westerly gale strack the ship, and she was driven back 200 miles or more, and it was not until six days thereafter that she could make any headway. Up to February 19 she had violent weather and veering gales. One of the scamen was felled to the deck by a stroke of lightung. The vessel was also driven back to longitude 17° west, and northward to latitude 52°. The ship had the most difficult work to get south of 50°. When in latitude 46° north, longitude 44° west, on March 10, she passed close to a lieberg 120 feet high and 400 feet long. At day-break next morning the ship was in the southern edge of a field of ice extending at least thirty miles to the northward. For two days she sailed to the westward along the southern edge of the ice. After clearing the ice field she passed several smaller floes. From that time she had fair weather. A pilot was taken off Fire Island on Tuesday.

The bark Litian M. Vigus had a more agreeable experience on a 42 days voyage from Antwerp, yet one not to be desired again. On March 2 she met a heavy easterly gale which died away in a few hours, to be followed after a brief cain by a terrific hurricane from the nurthwest. The winds were so violent that they tore into shreds the two topsails, the foresail, the mizzen-staysail, the fore-saly, and the main yard, was carried away. The vessel was hove to for eight days, making repairs and banding other sails. On March 12 in latitude 46° 20′ horth, longitude 47° west, she ran into a field of ice. After sailing about 50 miles she became blocked in the ice and remained so until the following morning, when it was found that she was in an ice pack which extended as far as could be seen from the topgallant yard. A west-rly breeze s

At the usual meeting of the Executive Committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company, yesterday, the recent decision of Judge Freedman in the suit brought to prevent the leasing of the Mutual Union lines was one of the subjects under discussion. The consent of the stockholders, at a meeting called for the purpose, is all that is necessary, according to the decision, to make the lease valid. No detion was taken by the committee at the meeting yesterday. The president of the company is authorized by the by-laws to call a special meeting of the stockholders on the written request of a midority of the directors or of one-third in interest of the stock holders was made to the president, but it is unmerstood that one will be made snortly.

Josiah C. Reiff, the plaintiff in the action about the lease, has served notice on the company, demanding that it shall bring a suit against the directors for payment to the company of the stock held to be illegally issued and for that received for the Adantic and Pacific Telegraph stock in the company's treasury, amounting to about $19,000,000 in all. THE TELEGRAPH LEASE.

A DRESSMAKER'S ATTEMPT TO SMUGGLE Customs inspectors in examining the baggage of the passengers of the White Star steamship Repub-te discovered an attempt on the part of a dressthe passengers of the White Star steamship Republic discovered as attempt on the part of a dressmaker living in this city to pass a quantity of dutiable goods, consisting of French and Turkish goods, Spanish lace, China silks, etc. The declaration made by the passenger was that the trunk contained only "wearing apparel in actual use, and personal effects, not merchandise, and beaded goods of the value of $400." An examination of the trunk showed dutiable goods valued above $1,000, one dress alone being worth 1,000 francs. Besides the "wearing apparel in actual use," there were a black grenadine lace and beaded dress valued at about $400. grenadine lace and beaded dress valued at about $16°a yard; a brown cashmere dress, giop trimmed a green cashmere and velvet combination dress; a black Ottoman silk mantle with lace and bead trimming; a black velvet mantle with lace and jet trimming, and many other articles of wearing apparel.

TALKING TO CHICAGO BY TELEPHONE.

TALKING TO CHICAGO BY TELEPHONE.

An experiment was made yesterday at the main offices of the Postal Telegraph Company with the long circuit telephone, invented by C. E. Scribner and controlled by the Western Electric Company, in talking between New-York and Chicago. Succe-stul experiments had previously been made in conversing over this telephone with Cleveland, but this was the first attempt to talk over a circuit extending to Chicago. The wires of the Postal Telegraph Company were used. The experiment was reasonably successful, although some trouble resulted from the induction caused by the use of contiguous wires for telegraph purposes. Conversation was carried on with the offices of the Postal Company at the Chicago Stock Yards, and the replies were heard as distinctly as they are heard over local short circuits. Professor Gray, the electrician of the Postal Company, had a short talk with a reporter of The Chicago Times, and several tunes played by Mr. Scribner at the Chicago end of the wire were heard clearly by a Tribune reporter at the New-York end. Several ladies witnessed the experiments in the course of the day.

SHOT IN A RAILWAY TRAIN.

Joseph E. Coffee, jr., a young man employed as bookkeeper by a firm in Nassau-st., had the monotony of his morning ride from New-Rochelle to the city varied in a rather unpleasant manner on fuesday. He was coming on the early morning express train on the New-Haven road. When near Fleetwood Park he saw two men standing near the track. One of the men raised a pistod and fired at the train. The bullet crashed through the window, and grazing Mr. Coffee's lower lip, fell on the other side of the car. Mr. Coffee was only slightly wounded. If he had been sitting upright in his sent, instead of leaning back, he would probably have been fatally hurt.

The Superintendent of the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad said to a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday that he had not heard of any one being shot on any of the trains. There had been some trouble, he said, with small boys at Tremont who threw stones at the trains. A man in the cars was hit the other day by a stone fired from a sling. Measures have been taken to stop the evil practices of the boys.

MISHAP ON THE ELEVATED ROAD.

A locomotive on the Third Avenue Elevated Road, drawing a train full of passe gas bound downtown, blew out a cylinder-bead about a quarter before 7 o'clock last uight and detained all to-lowing trains for thirty-five minutes. This happened above Seventy-sixth-st., but the disabled train was pushed down to Sixty-fith-st., where it could be switched upon a side-track. Representatives of the press who made inquiries at the Sixty-seventh-st, up-town station met with insulting replies from a tall man wearing a full beard and an old black Al-satian hat. It was said that the cylinder-head iell to the street, but it could not be ascertained whether any one was hurt or not. The surface-cars beat the elevated trains to the City Hail from Seventy-sixth-st., but the indignation of passengers, in baste to the theatres or to keep some appointment, was of no avail.

DR. CLYMER ON MR. STOKES'S SANITY. DR. CLYMER ON MR. STOKES'S SANITY.

In the contest over the codicil to the will of the late James Stokes, Dr. Merdich Clymer was called yesterday, on the part of the contestant, as an expert in insanity cases. The same hypothetical question was put to Dr. Clymer which had previously been asked of other experts. The question is very long, and embodies what are supposed by the counsel for the contestant to be the material facts bearing upon Mr. Stokes's mental condition which have been established by the evidence. Mr. Evarts, for the proponents, objecter to the question as containing some things which it ought not to contain, and omitting some things which it ought to contain. Dr. Clymer said that, in his opinion, the person described in the hypothetical question was of unsound mind. The cross-examination of the witness will take place to-morrow.

WASHINGTON IRVING'S BIRTHDAY.

About two weeks ago an association was formed at Tarrytown for the appropriate celebration of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Washington Irving, who for many years before his death lived at "Sunnyside," on the banks of the Hudson. As for a long time he was one of the vestrymen of Christ's Episcopal Church at Tarrytown, the feev. J. Selden Spencer, rector of that church, was chosen president of the Irving Association. At a meeting which will be held this evening, a letter from the poot Whittier will be read in regard to the proposed ceremonies, and the programme will be issued in a day or two. It is understood that special arrangements have been made with the New-York City and Northern Railroad for the conveyance of visitors to and from Tarrytown.

DETERMINED UPON SUICIDE.

G. H. Johnsen, of No. 151 Haron-st., Brooklyn, attempted to leap from a Weehawken ferry-boat late on Tuesday ni.ht, but was prevented by a deckband. He thereupon drew a revolver and shot himself in the head. The ballet caused only a slight world, and the man was arrested. In the York-ville Police Court, yesterday morning, Johnson admitted having attempted to kill himself, and said that he had suffered for the past twenty years from the effects of a fail, and that he had been parted from his wife and family for ten years. Justice Herman committed him in $500 bail for trial.

THE NEWARK BANK IRREGULARITIES.

The indictments in the United States Court at Trenton against the directors of the First National Bank of Newark for criminal negligence, causing the ruin of the bank, have been abandoned, District-Attorney A. Q. Keasbey entering a noile prosequi. The evidence taken before a Master shows that the directors concealed a defalcation of $100,000 of one of the clerks; that the accounts were deliberately falsified to give he bank a good apparent showing, with the knowledge of certain directors; that the paper of directors was discounted by the bank and used as assets; that the bank dealt in its own stock; that accounts were transferred and retrans erred in order to deceive the examiners, and that or her acts were done in violation of the National Bank laws and the statates. The indictmen's were found in the June term, 1881, and have never since been prosecuted by the District-Attorney. In the meantime the directors have been employed in settli; gor compromising the claims of creditors of the bank. The depositors were paid in full, and the stockholders were brought to agree to a settlement. District-Attorney Keasbey's action was based upon the declared fact that the proofs had not disclosed any actual participation in the frauds by the directors; that they had not derived any personal profit by the ruin of the bank; an i that under these circumstances he had requested the Attorney-General to authorize him to ask leave to enter a nolle prosequi. eral to authorize him to ask leave to enter a none prosequi.

In the same court recently District-Attorney Keasbey, by authority of the Department of Justice at Washington, caused to be quashed all criminal proceedings against Stephen H. Condict, of Newark, charged with acts that led to the run of the Mechanics' National Bank of Newark, for the reason that Condict had made a cash settlement with the other directors, with a view to paying the depositors and stockholders. The cases of Christopher Nugont and Theodore Baldwin, who were arrested and held to bail on criminal enarges connected with the ruin of the Mechanics' National Bank, have not been brought up. The bail in these cases has been vacated.

FUNERAL OF DR. VAN BUREN.

The funeral of the late Dr. William H. Van Buren, who died in this city on Sunday. March 25, took place at St. Patrick's Cath dral yesterday morning. Long before the hour of service had arrived, the cathedral was crowded with people. The coffin was placed in front of the high altar. The pall-bearers were Cyrns W. Field, Royal Phelps, August Belmont, H. B. Routh. H. M. Alexander, S. L. M. Barlow, J. P. Girand Foster, W. H. Appleton, Drs. C. R. Agnew. Abram Du Beis. C. C. Lee, R. F. Weir, Alexander McL. Agnew. George A. Peters, Thomas Addis Emmet, Austin Fint, W. H. Draper, Fordyce Barker, a. A. Looais and L. A. Stimpson. The mourners were the widow, Mrs. Van Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Meert, Mr. and Mrs. Jule Brughere, Mr. and Mrs. Isaae Bell, Dr. Alexander Mott and son. The facuity of the Bellevue Ho-pital Medical College was represented by the following: Professor Isaac E. Taylor, president, and Professors Lewis A. Sayre, William T. Lusk, Joseph D. Bryant, R. Ogden Doremus, Edward G. Janeway. Henry D. Noyes, Frederick S. Dennis and W. F. Mittendorf. A delegation of fifty students occupied seats in the centre aisle. Among those present were vlayor Grace, Thomas S. Bremann, Henry H. Porter, Roswell G. Rolston, Sannel Sloan, John Steward. William and John O'Brien, Drs. J. G. Adams, W. H. Katzenbach, E. H. Warner, F. N. Otis, E. N. Tailer, T. G. Thomas, William Young, C. A. Leale and John H. Himon.

Archbishep Corrigan was the celebrant in the solemn requiem mass which was begun soon after 10 o'slock. He was assisted by Fa her Salaun, of Red Bank, N. J. Among the clergy pies nt were Mgr. Quinu, of Newark; the Kev. James Corrigan, president of Setor College; Fathers Rioran, of St. Bernard; Young, of the Paulists; Everett, of the Nativity, and Ducey, of St. Leo's. William F. THE TRAGEDY OF THE VIENNA FLATS.

Captain McElwain still remains in charge of Haver tick's rooms at the Vienna Flats in West Twents-third-st., George C. Kobbe, the counsel for Haverstick's brother, having served upon him a formal objection to the surrender of the property to Mrs. Uhler. He says now that he will had on to the effects until he is released from charge of them by a legal order. Mrs. Uhler was present at the rooms vesterday afternoon with some persons who desired to purchase the furniture. Io-night she will start for Renc, Nev., with her brother, leaving her affairs in the hands of an agent. Conkinn is desired to purchase the furniture. Io-night she will start for Renc, Nev., with her brother, leaving her affairs in the hands of an agent. Conkinn is desirous of returning to his home as soon as possible, in order to get to work. He still continues to receive letters from friends with offers of money to conduct his defence.

The will of Mr. Haverstick was left vesterday with the Surrogate. It bears date October 28, 1875. Mr. Haverstick bequeaths all his property to his mother, Heurietta Haverstick, whom he appoints executive of the will. Waverley Stanly is named as executor. Authority is given to dispose of the testator's estate in such maoner as may seem best.

The papers in the case of Conkling were sent to the District-Autorney's office yesterday from the Tombs Police Court, where Conkling was discharged by Justice Smith. The case will probably be sent to the Grand Jury for action. THE TRAGEDY OF THE VIENNA FLATS.

TREATMENT OF HEMORRHAGES.

Dr. Holbrook Curtis delivered his opening lecture on "First Aid to the Injured" before a class of about twenty ladies yesterday afternoon at No. 6 West Fourteenth-st. Dr. Curtis gave a brief outline of the structure and most important functions of the body, and then spoke at some length on hemorrhage of the extremites and the best means of controling it. In reference to profuse and dangerous hemorrhage Dr. Curtis said: "There is only one thing to be done when a large artery is severed, and that is the immediate application of the tourniquet above the wound. This must be applied boldly and tightly, so as to arrest completely the circulation in the migned limb." He then gave an outline of the large arteries of the arm and leg, and applied the tourniquet to a boy's arm by way of illustration. The course consists of five lectures, and on Thursday, April 5, there will be a class for men, beginning at 8 p. m.

COMMISSIONER WALES INDIGNANT. The Park Board attempted to gather itself to-

The Park Board attempted to gather itself together yesterday for a meeting, but Commissioner Wales was all that appeared of it. Commissioner Crimmins, on whose motion the session had been cailed, communicated by telephone, and on learning that his colleague, General Viele, was not present, expressed his intention of not attending the meeting, General Viele was said to be saffering from a sore throat. As for Mr. Olliffe, nobody had the least idea what had become of him.

Mr. Wales was naturally indignant at this state of affairs. He was eag'r to dispatch business, to get Mr. Isaacs and his g arts out of the Board's capacious mind and to settle forever the question of Superintendent Jones and hie washind hid. "I expected we would end the investigation this week," he said, "but now the prospect of its ever being concluded seems remote. I certainly cannot be in the city next week. That will be the 1st of April, and I have made arrangements to go to my country residence at Southampton to set matters to rights for spring. I must have a chimney fixed and must get my hens to setting. I have attended closely to business and think I am entitled to a little rest."

AN UNKNOWN PERSON'S GENEROSITY.

The Washington Heights Library has received from an unknown givet $1,200, payable in monthly instalments from May 1, 1883, to May 1, 1884. The giver desired that the privileges of the library should be extended free of charge to every one living in its vicinity, and that it should be open at some time on Sanday. The institution has heretofore been supported by the gifts of persons living at Washington Heights, and the income has been about $600 a year. The offer of additional income was made through James Monteith, the vice-president of the Board of Truscees, and was accepted by the trustees, who passed resolutions making the institution a free circulating library and reading-room, open every day from 8 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. A resolution of thanks to the unknown giver was also passed. AN UNKNOWN PERSON'S GENEROSITY."

A QUARREL AMONG FRIENDS.

Health Officer Dennen and Alderman P. I. Gleason, of Long Island City, had a personal mixinderstanding at Miller's Hotel on Monday evening, which, but for the interference of friends, would have terminated in blows. The difficulty arose over an attempt made by the doctor a short time ago to a curre sufficient stock in the street railroads operated by the Alderman to obtain control of the management. The doctor says that he was trying to buy the stock for Mrs. Sprague, the divorced wife of ex-diovernor Sprague, of Rhode Island, who is intimate with the doctor's family, but the Alderman believes he was endeavoring to buy it for a large corporation in Hunter's Point, said to be opposed to him. The doctor owes his appointment as Health Officer in a great measure to the influence of Alderman Gleason, and the latter was furious when he heard of the attempt to oust him from the roads under his charge. SENTENCES IN THE GENERAL SESSIONS. SENTENCES IN THE GENERAL SESSIONS.

Edward J. Courtney who has spent many years in prison in different States on charges of counterfeiting, was sentenced yeaterday by Judge Cowing to ten years in the State Prison for perjury. Courtney testified when he was on trial a year ago on a charge of forgery, that he had never been confined in the Eastern Penitentiary of Pennsylvania nor in any prison in that State. He was convicted on the charge of forcery, but the Supreme Court reversed the judgment. He was then tried on the charge of perjury and evidence was introduced showing that he bad served a term in the Eastern Penitentiary. An appeal was taken from the sentence of the Court.

Richard Hart and William Clark, the latter a mid-he bad served a term in the Eastern Penitentiary. An appeal was taken from the sentence of the Court.

Richard Hart and William Clark, the latter amiddle-aged man, were seen by Officer Clarker hiding on a fire-escape, near Hugh Freef's pawn shop in Pearl-st., on the hight of February 19. A hole was found dug in the wall of the building and both the prisoners pleaded guilty of an attempt at lurglary. They were each sentenced by Judge Cowing yesterday to eight years in the State Prison.

Mary Devlin was standing at Thirteeuth-st, and Avenue D on the evening of March 19, waiting for a cat. She asked a man who was near whether the green cars passed that corner. The stranger, who proved to be Lawrence Gillen, answered by knocking the young woman down and seizing the pocket-book she had in her hand. He was afterward arrested and yesterday pleaded guilty in the Court of General Sessions. Julge Cowing sentenced Gillen to seven years and six months in the State Prison.

Charies B. Seebeck, a young German, was sentenced yesterday by Recorder Smyth to one year in the State Prison on a conviction of assault. He was walking in East Sixty-third-st, on the evening of Feoruary 11, when several small boys threw snow-balls at him. Seebeck was angry and turning discharged a pistol the bullet from which struck John Noonan, age nine, inflicting a slight wound. Seebeck had previously borne a good character and his sentence was accordingly light.

Henry Krebs, who was a friend of David Kidney, one of the two men charged with steaning a tin-box containing $1,500 from Gustave Ultiman in Greenwien-st, attempted while his friend was on trial to intimidate Lena Beck, a witness against the accused man, so as to pievent ner from appearing. He was arrested on a charge of attempting to suppress testimony and was vesterday convicted in the Court of General Sessions. He was sentenced by Judge Cowing to mirry days in the Penitentiary.

RYAN'S SUIT REACTING UPON HIMSELF. Printed copies of the following letter, signed by John Ryan, the patrolman in whose case the Court of Aspeals recently gave a decision against the Board of Police in respect to back pay, have been sent to members of the police force in all the precincts this week:

cincts this week;

Sir: I am informed by several of my acquaintances on the police force, and others, that mostly an fac roundsmen, pairolimen and doormen on the force are occasions of contributing something toward defraying my expenses for carrying my case turonga the couris so successfully and to the benefit of all the members on the force. Some were in favor of taking up a subscription in each house; but, to prevent the Commissioners from coding to the knowledge of any man's business in this case, I deem it advisable for the benefit of my old comrades and all members of the force to keep the matter as quite as possible. Should you consider that I am entitled to any consideration, you will please in close in an ence.ope what you feel disposed to give, and no man shall know of it. My funds are night exhausted. I have received very little, on account of counsel fees, and you know my pension is small and not likely to last long.

Ryan, who is a confirmed invalid, received $4,666.56 recently, awarded him by the courts on account of pay lost during sickness. He had been kept on hair pay, $6000 a year, for several years. After receiving his back pay he was re-kept on half pay, $600 a year, for several years.

After receiving his back pay he was retred on a pension of $200 per annum.

Coores of his appeal for help were shown yesterday to the Commissioners. Some indiguation was expressed at Police Headquarters on account of his letter and many sarcastic remarks were made in regard to Ryan's concluding statement that his pension was "small and not likely to last long" inasunca as the effect of the decision in Ryan's case will be to desirov the Police Pousion Fund. Superintendent Wading said: "A policeman who gives money to that man is a fool. Ryan's letter is an insult to faithful officers who might have expected to be retired on a pension were it not for the result of Ryan's suit."
